Pre-Flight – Trace

RECEPTION WITH THE ARTIST
THURSDAY, MAR 4, 7:30 PM
FREE ADMISSION

Dana Shukster's recent explorations of the fugitive aspects of light, and the resulting perceptions of reality and illusion, have led to the creation of a series of large scale, sepia-toned inkjet prints on paper. These mysterious and ephemeral images are derived from projected shadows of magpies in flight, and are accompanied in the gallery by video and direct shadow projections. Shukster comments: "The shadow photographs are an attempt to visually represent traces of shifting states of being or altering states of reality."

Dana Shukster is based in Medicine Hat, Alberta and has exhibited her work across Canada, in the United States and Europe. Her work has been supported by grants and awards from the Canada Council for the Arts and the Alberta Foundation for the Arts, and is held in numerous public and private collections in Alberta and British Columbia.

As a special artist project associated with this exhibition, the Esplanade Art Gallery will also present a print work by Dana Shukster on a billboard located at Dunmore Road, south of 22 Street SE, from the week of March 22 to the week of April 12, 2010.
